

Health-Care and Social Academy Hradec Králové, Faculty of Military Health Sciences UD, Emergency Medical Service of Hradec Králové Region, Czech Red Cross Division Hradec Králové, Emergency Health-Care Preparedness CzMA Society, Faculty of Informatics and Management UHK invite you to participate in

The 10th Conference on DISASTER MEDICINE
EXPERIENCE, PREPARATION, PRACTICE

held under the auspices of MUDr. Jiří Mašek, Director of the Emergency Medical Service of Hradec Králové Region

on November 28 – 29, 2013 in Hradec Králové

Main topics of the conference:

- Emergency and disaster planning and preparation
- Disaster medicine – international experience
- Major incidents and IRS drills – case studies
- Current threats and risks
- Ethnic, humanitarian and psycho-social aspects of major incidents
- Pre-hospital and hospital emergency care – new trends
- Preparation of health-care facilities for major incidents
- Education, professional training and competence
- Disaster medicine research
- CBRNE
- Catastrophe impact reduction
- Civil and military aspects of disaster medicine

More information can be found at <http://www.zsa.cz>

The conference is held together with the international workshop Economic Efficiency in Pre-Hospital Emergency Care?
on the possibilities of monitoring and evaluating of economic indicators in pre-hospital emergency care

The workshop will be chaired by MUDr. Jiří Mašek and col. Ing. Miroslav Procházka, Ph.D.
The workshop will be held on November 27, 2013, more information at <http://www.zsa.cz/workshop.htm>